What happens in Sitges, stays in Sitges (and in your memory)

Sitges changes pace at night. The town's bars, restaurants, terraces and beach bars are the perfect outlet for all the energy built up over the course of the day. There's no rush. Just eagerness to eat, drink, chat, stroll and dance. The man in the moon knows this. And he's in, of course ;)

2. NIGHTLIFE AREAS

SITGES BY NIGHT (NIGHTLIFE)

CARRER DEL PECAT

Don't let the name fool you... or perhaps do!

📍 Carrer del Primer de maig

The best-known street in Sitges is undoubtedly Carrer del Primer de Maig, renamed and popularly known as 'Carrer del Pecat' (Sin Street). Leading directly to (and from) the seafront promenade, its nickname gives a pretty good idea of the atmosphere and experiences that await along this iconic street. But it is true that, rather than a street of sin, it is a street of temptations: restaurants, fashion and accessory shops, bars, pubs and terraces where you can see and be seen. The 'sinning' part is up to you... ;)

AN UNMISSABLE STREET

Whether you like going out at night or not, and whether you feel like dancing or not, Carrer del Pecat (Sin Street) is well worth an evening stroll. Whether you are heading to or coming from the beach, this is a unique stretch of town, filled with music spilling out from the clubs, where you see and are seen, especially when you reach its end, or perhaps its beginning, depending on where you start: Plaça de la Indústria. There, to the left and right, the terraces set out their tables and chairs to watch people passing by. And if you turn into Carrer de Joan Tarida, towards Carrer de Bonaire, you will find the favourite area for the LGBTIQ+ community.

PORT DE SITGES
-AIGUADOLÇ

Where evening blends with the night

 Port de Sitges-Aiguadolç

There are places that welcome you naturally, where you feel good and time is never in a rush. The Port de Sitges-Aiguadolç is one of them. Not only is it a meeting point to enjoy local gastronomy, but it is also an ideal place to enjoy a ‘tardeo’ (afternoon drinks and socialising) with character and views in one of its venues. This ‘tardeo’ then continues in any of the port’s restaurants, which, with a sophisticated yet welcoming atmosphere, prepares us to round off the night with a summer concert or dancing in one of its bars.

LGBTBIQ+ SCENE

Pioneers in freedom and fun

📍 Carrer 2 de maig — Plaça Indústria
and carrer Joan Tarrida

Sitges is a pioneering place for the visibility and defence of the LGBTQ+ community, which also finds in the town a meeting point to enjoy a unique combination: not only is it a place to go out and have fun, but it also offers a highly varied yet compact gastronomic and cultural scene to enjoy on foot and combine in whatever order you wish.

A-MA-ZING AT-MO-SPHERE

Nightlife for the LGBTIQ+ community is concentrated around the axis formed by Carrer del Primer de Maig, known as Carrer del Pecat (Sin Street); Plaça Indústria, which opens up along the middle stretch of this street and is the place to see and be seen; and Carrer de Joan Tarrida, pedestrianised and taken over by the terraces of the bars lining the stretch between the square and Carrer de Bonaire. On this same street is the headquarters of Colors Link, an organisation that energises, connects, defends, and promotes LGBTIQ+ diversity, rights, health and culture in Sitges.

📍 Hotel Me Sitges Terramar and Hotel MIM

Sitges is charming from any point of view. From above, too. And very much so. You only need to visit the terraces of the MIM or ME Sitges Terramar hotels to see for yourselves. The views are unique. Add live DJs, cocktails and Mediterranean and international cuisine to the mix. Ready to head up?

SITGES SEEN FROM A TERRACE

Sitges' very location enhances the views from above. On the one hand, the green and grey of the Parc del Garraf. And on the other, the seafront promenade, the beaches and the endless sea. And between the two, a skyline where La Punta (the small hill or promontory where the parish church of Sant Bartomeu and Santa Tecla stands) always serves as a landmark, rising above an unimposing whitewashed townscape with a heartbeat that pulses and expands. This heartbeat finds a very special echo on these terraces, which bloom in spring and summer as the hours of sunshine grow longer, enhancing their musical and culinary offering.

THE TERRACE AT HOTEL MIM

In the case of the Hotel MIM, and thanks to Sitges' privileged climate, its terrace is open all year round. The name already gives you a taste of what to expect: Sky Bar. And it confirms them, as we are talking about a terrace with 360-degree panoramic views, which can also be enjoyed from a central location. With a capacity for 80 people, its terrace is open to any visitor, whether they are staying at the hotel or not. Heading up to the top floor also comes with a reward: the chance to sample its Mediterranean cuisine alongside a curated selection of signature and craft cocktails with privileged views of Sitges.

THE TERRACE AT HOTEL ME SITGES TERRAMAR

We are moving away from the centre, but getting closer to the sea. Very close indeed. So much so that from the terrace of the ME Sitges Terramar, the Radio Rooftop Bar, the sea and Les Anquines beach are literally right below you. This is undoubtedly Sitges' other great terrace. With a capacity for 120 people, it has another added advantage: it offers you the best coastal skyline in the town. This excitement is greatly enhanced by the atmosphere created up there. On the one hand, a commitment to cuisine based on Asian and Latin American street food, complemented by one of the best selections of craft cocktails in Sitges. And on the other, the music from resident and guest DJs, providing the rhythm and soundtrack to this terrace.

Hedonism on the sand with a sea view

 From April to October —  Various locations

If eating is an experience, then doing it on the beach, facing the sea, with music and a vibrant atmosphere becomes a true explosion of sensations. And because in Sitges we love sharing the good things in life, the town offers 20 fully equipped chiringuitos (beach bars) so that this experience is as effortless as it is unforgettable.

SUNSET AND STARTING THE EVENING AT A BEACH BAR IN SITGES

A great plan (no, a fantastic plan!) is to start the evening (or end the afternoon) at a beach bar. Whether you're still in your swimsuit or dressed up for a night out, having a drink or dinner overlooking the sea is an idea that can only turn out well. Watching the sunset and having dinner at one of Sitges' beach bars is... well, just that, a fantastic plan. Remember that there are 20 beach bars spread across different beaches. You know that in Sitges we never fall short...

FESTIVAL JARDINS DE TERRAMAR (TERRAMAR GARDENS FESTIVAL)

The best stage for the best concerts

VISIT THE FESTIVAL WEBSITE

 July-August -  Jardins de Terramar

The Festival Terramar CaixaBank (Terramar CaixaBank Festival) in Sitges is a unique leisure, cultural and gastronomic experience. An unbeatable combination of live music with a unique natural and heritage setting: the century-old Jardins de Terramar, opened in 1919 and featuring a romantic central pond surrounded by benches. This festival provides the soundtrack to Sitges during the months of July and August, with a line-up that mixes national and international artists. Singers such as Tom Jones and groups like The Beach Boys and Kool & The Gang have performed in the Jardins de Terramar, alongside leading figures like Joan Manuel Serrat, Hombres G and the flamenco dancer Sara Baras.

 June-July —  Port de Sitges-Aiguadolç

In June and July, the Port de Sitges-Aiguadolç hosts different free concerts every Saturday night. These concerts, which start shortly before midnight, have established themselves as one of the meeting points of summer nights, where people gather after dinner to dance with the sea as their backdrop. Heading over to the Port de Sitges-Aiguadolç is always a good plan. But if you come to Sitges in summer, between June and July, and spend Saturday with us, then heading over to this marina is a fantastic plan.

DRAG QUEEN SHOW

The queens of the night

VISIT QUEENZ DINNER SHOW WEBSITE

📍 Queenz. Carrer Espalter, 2

VISIT INSTGRAM BAR COMODÍN

📍 Bar Comodín. Carrer de Tacó, 4

The nights in Sitges have undisputed queens: the Drag Queens, who offer live shows in two venues in the municipality. At both Bar Comodín and Queenz, drag takes to the stage to seduce the audience with music, choreography and fantasy costumes tailored to each performance. They set the rhythm of the night. And it's impossible not to follow it...

BAR COMODÍN, THE OLDEST GAY BAR IN SPAIN

Bar Comodín, located right in the centre of Sitges, opened its doors in 1955 aimed at a gay audience and with live drag performances. This makes it a pioneer in all of Spain and a benchmark venue that still maintains the same essence as on day one: fun, a great atmosphere and the defence of LGBTIQ+ identity. Every night in summer, and on Saturdays and Sundays the rest of the year, Bar Comodín becomes a stage where different Drag Queens offer a varied repertoire, alternating with walkabouts and ironic, sarcastic dialogues with a dedicated... and very loyal audience. Because if anything characterises the atmosphere of Bar Comodín, it is the feeling of being among family, something noticeable both amongst the artists themselves and in their connection with the audience, who tend to return and know some of the songs by heart. Ah! You shouldn't miss the 'Nit de la Mantilla' (Mantilla Night), in which the Drag Queens use this iconic and traditional Spanish garment to cover their hair and shoulders, and a jury chooses the queen of the night.

DINNER WITH A SHOW AT QUEENZ

Unlike Bar Comodín, Queenz, also located right in the heart of Sitges, offers dinner while the Drag Queens perform. Taste, sight and sound come together in this experience. Visitors can enjoy a menu specializing in Mediterranean and French cuisine while watching a mix of cabaret, theatre and comedy, which usually ends around midnight. Tip: book in advance ;)
